H. O'Reilly, southwestern representative of the Washington Life Insurance company, left last night for an extended trip through Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harach have left for an overland trip to Chihuahua, and expect to be gone until the last of the week.

Col. R. Kelly, the watchman at the Ortiz mine up in the Corralitos district, is in the city, and A. A. Henry is showing the gentlemanly courtesies.

There will be a regular meeting of the Elks tonight at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to attend tonight's meeting as there will be initiation.

L. R. Babcock, general merchant of Kelly, left last night for home after spending the day in the city attending to business. He was accompanied by his son.

Dr. D. H. Carns, Dr. J. E. Kraft and party of local sportsmen left last night for an extended bear hunt in the Datil mountains. They expect to bag all sorts of big game.

There will be a meeting of Navajo Tribe No. 3, Improved Order of Red Men, at their hall this evening at 8 o'clock. All brothers and visiting members are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Boettger, of Old Albuquerque, have returned from a pleasure trip to the City of Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Boettger were absent from the territory about six weeks.

The Woman's Circle of the First Baptist church will hold their monthly tea Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. H. Carns, 519 West Gold avenue. All are invited to attend.

Rev. John Mordy, Presbyterian missionary at Laguna, returned to the city last night from Las Vegas, where he went to attend the Presbyterian synod, which closed its week's session in the Meadow City yesterday.

Col. W. S. Hopewell, general manager of the New Mexico Fuel & Iron company, arrived in the city last night from Santa Fe and will spend several days here before leaving for the east on an important business mission.

S. H. Spooner, special United States attorney in Indian deputation claims, with headquarters in Washington, is expected in Albuquerque in a few weeks. Mr. Spooner is now attending to official business in southern Arizona.

Rev. T. C. Moffatt, synodical missionary of the Presbyterian church in Arizona, passed through the city last night en route home from Las Vegas, where he attended the annual session of the Presbyterian synod of New Mexico and Arizona.

Ubaldo y Sanchez, a prominent sheep raiser of Torrance county, arrived in the city today with his fall clip amounting to 30,000 pounds. The wool is of good quality and Mr. Sanchez has already been offered 18 cents per pound for his clip by local commission firms.

The concert commences tonight at the Elks' ball room at 8:30. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Admission will be fifty cents and there will be no reserved seats. Mr. E. H. Sickels, the blind musician, and Mr. Leonard Miller, the whistling wonder, will take part.

Col. W. S. Hopewell returned from Santa Fe last night, and today is busily engaged in answering correspondence at his office in the N. T. Armijo building. Mrs. Hopewell and children are in Sierra county, but are expected to return to Albuquerque within a fortnight to remain permanently.

Edward Holmes Sickels, the wonderful blind musician, assisted by Leonard Miller and local talent, will give a concert at Elks' ball room tonight. The concert promises to be one of the musical treats of the season and no one should fail to attend. The admission is only 50 cents.

Mrs. B. J. McGuire, of Belen, where her husband is in business, and her sister, Mrs. Ernest Heenan and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Cheyenne, Wyo., are in the city today, visiting friends and doing some shopping. Mrs. Heenan and daughter will visit Belen several months before returning to their home at Cheyenne.

W. W. Havens, national organizer for the Anti-Saloon League of America, was in Albuquerque between trains last night on his way to Silver City, where he will organize a branch of the league. It is Mr. Havens' intention to return to this city in the course of a few weeks and organize a branch of the anti-saloon league here.

Ike Basham, a plaster of this city, last night received a telegram from Roseman, Mont., announcing the sudden death of his brother, Henry Basham, at that point yesterday. The deceased was well known throughout southern New Mexico, where he was foreman for several years of one of the largest cattle outfits in the territory.

The Silver City Independent says: Morris Abraham, who holds a responsible position with the Rothenberg-Schloss company, at Albuquerque, is in the city visiting his father. It is not unlikely that Mr. Abraham may return to Silver City in a short while, and his many friends hope that he will decide upon such a move. Mrs. Abe Abraham is still visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Copp at Albuquerque, and will remain there during the greater portion of the present month.

Joseph Lewis, who was at the Faywood hot springs, in southern New Mexico, has returned to the city, but he is very reticent over an event which happened at Isleta, so King says, just before he left for the springs. While at the resort Mr. Lewis received, almost daily, half a dozen letters of congratulations from Albuquerque friends. He has not selected his residence, nor announced when he will go to housekeeping. Intimate friends, however, think he will be "at home" on and after November 1st.

"THE MAN FROM MEXICO" MADE HIT WITH AUDIENCE

GEORGE SAMUELS AND COMPANY CLEVER ACTS GIVE EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE AT ELKS' THEATER.

A continuous laugh from start to finish is the sort of amusement "The Man From Mexico" furnished the audience that gathered in the Elks' theater last night to witness the second bill presented by George Samuels and his company of clever artists.

Full of ludicrous situations, the play kept the audience in a perfect uproar, and the actors were repeatedly forced to respond to encores. The scenery was among the best ever seen in this city and the stage settings were especially elaborate.

Mr. Samuels and his company will return to Albuquerque next month, at which time they will put on an entirely new bill.

The uniformed ushers add much to the theater, but they should remove those caps, which are entirely out of place inside the theater.

COMING MARRIAGE

Night before last Miss Inez Healy of Lincoln, Ill., arrived in the city, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Patrick M. Downey, and the announcement has just been made that she came all the way from the Sucker state to claim as her husband Isaac H. Graham. The marriage ceremony, so it is understood, this afternoon, will be performed one evening this week, probably tomorrow, at the parsonage of the Church of Immaculate Conception, and that Rev. Mandalari will tie the knot.

The prospective bride, before coming to this city, was a popular school teacher of Lincoln, while the groom who will soon renounce bachelorhood for a better life, is a well known business gentleman of Railroad avenue, and a brother of Warren Graham.
